

Logos Terms of Service

Effective: January 2, 2019

These Terms of Service (“Terms”) are a contract between you and Logos News LLC (“Logos”, “We”, “Us” or “Our”). They govern your use of our website and mobile application (the “Services”).

By using the Services, you agree to these Terms. If you don’t agree to any of the Terms, you can’t use the Services.

We can change these Terms at any time. If we make a change to our Terms that’s significant, we’ll let you know before they take effect. By using the Services on or after that effective date, you agree to the new Terms. If you don’t agree to them, you should delete your account before they take effect, otherwise your use of our Services will be subject to the new Terms.

Content Rights & Responsibilities

You own the rights to the content you create and post on Logos.

In consideration for Logos granting you access to and use of the Services, you agree that Logos may enable advertising on the Services, including in connection with the display of your content or other information. We may also use your content to promote Logos, including its products and content. We will never sell your content to third parties without your explicit permission.

You’re responsible for the content you post. This means you assume all risks related to it, including someone else’s reliance on its accuracy, or claims relating to intellectual property or other legal rights.

You’re welcome to post content on Logos that you’ve published elsewhere, as long as you have the rights you need to do so. By posting content to Logos, you represent that doing so doesn’t conflict with any other agreement you’ve made.

By posting content you didn’t create to Logos, you are representing that you have the right to do so. For example, you are posting a work that’s in the public domain, used under license (including a free license, such as Creative Commons), or a fair use.

We can remove any content you post for any reason.

You can delete any of your posts, or your account, anytime. To do so, send us an email at info@logosnews.tech. Processing the deletion may take a little time, but we’ll do it as quickly as possible.
